

PROGRAM DAY-BY-DAY

Wednesday 2 June 2010:

The efforts that create the jobs we need

16.00 Plenary session I - Opening the Summit (Part 1)

Music: intonation by Magnus Lindgren

The vision: Let us REWORK THE WORLD

Poonam Ahluwalia (President, Youth Entrepreneurship and Sustainability, USA) and Carl Mossfeldt (Executive Vice President, Tällberg Foundation, Sweden) present the vision of the summit.

Includes a welcome to Leksand and Dalarna from Ulrika Liljeberg (Mayor of Leksand, Sweden) and Julia Tollin (Young Enterprise, Dalarna).

The task ahead

Mary Robinson (President, Realizing Rights: The Ethical Globalization Initiative, Ireland)

Presentations and conversations around the tables

It can be done

- Majora Carter (President, Majora Carter Group, USA)
- Sunita Narain (Director, Centre for Science and Environment, India)

Location: Arena

17.45 Break and refreshments

18.00 Plenary session II – Opening the Summit (Part 2)

Music by artists from the No More Lullabies project

Tomorrow's youth – what does it look like?

Hans Rosling (Professor of International Health, Karolinska Institutet and Director, Gapminder Foundation, Sweden)

It can be done

- Kimmie L. Weeks (Youth Action International, Liberia).
- Jennifer Corriero (founder, TakingITGlobal, Canada)
- John D. Liu (Director, Environmental Education Media Project, China)

Our task at the summit

- Karin Bruce (Tällberg Foundation, Sweden) introduces the program, the projects and the workshops:
- A message to participants (by video) from Kofi Annan (Chair, Global Humanitarian Forum, Geneva) and Juan Somavia (Director-General, International Labour Organization, Geneva).
- Conversations around tables.
- A vision for 100,000 jobs in Sweden, presented by Thomas Kåberger (Director General, Swedish Energy Agency, Sweden).

Music with the Fiddlers of Dalarna with Magnus Lindgren

Location: Arena

20.00 "Gästabud" - Outdoor buffet dinner

Location: Tent

Thursday, 3 June 2010:

Creating the new jobs – the context and the projects

07.30 Morning nature walks

Nature walks starting at Leksand stugby, Tällberg and Rättvik.
(breakfast included, followed by bus transfers)

Location: Various

10.00 Plenary session III – Creating the new jobs: Context, opportunities, risks and leadership

Music with Yair Dalal and Sébastien Dubé

The context: What world to rework?

Bo Ekman (Founder and Chair, Tällberg Foundation, Sweden) leads a conversation with Mohan Munasinghe (Director-General, Sustainable Consumption Institute, University of Manchester, UK, and Vice Chairman, IPCC, Sri Lanka) and Elinor Ostrom (laureate of the Nobel Memorial Prize in Economics 2009, and Professor of Economics, Indiana University, USA).

The openings: Where are the opportunities?

A conversation moderated by Ismail Serageldin (Director, Bibliotheca Alexandrina), with reflections from:

- Reeta Roy (President and CEO, MasterCard Foundation, Canada)
- Karen Tse (CEO, International Bridges to Justice, Switzerland)

Realities on the Ground

A conversation with:

- Gunilla Carlsson (Minister for International Development Cooperation, Sweden)
- Nathalie Cely (Coordinating Minister of Production, Competitiveness and Commercialisation, Ecuador)
- Faiza Jama Abdi Nur (Country Leader, YES, Somalia)
- Hafsat Abiola Costello (Founder, Kudirat Initiative for Democracy (KIND), Nigeria)
- Gabriel Ehrling (Vice President, National Council of Swedish Youth Organisations (LSU), Sweden)
- Frank T. Mukama (Regional co-ordinator, YES, Rwanda)
- Bhuwan KC (YES Nepal)
- Michael Simmons (CEO and Co-Founder, Extreme Entrepreneurship Education, USA)

Moderated by Paul van Zyl (CEO, Jobs for Peace, South Africa)

Final reflections

- Gunilla Carlsson (Minister for International Development Cooperation, Sweden)

Location: Arena

12.00
- 14.00

Lunch

Location: Tent

14.00

Theme Introductions (five parallel sessions)

Theme Introduction – Energy
Theme Introduction – Land
Theme Introduction – Water
Theme Introduction – Cities
Theme Introduction – People

Location: Various

16.00

Break

16.30 Parallel Reworkshop Sessions (I)

A total of 100+ projects are presented and discussed in action-oriented Reworkshops. These sessions are designed to give space for presentations and open up for constructive discussion. Project-owners/entrepreneurs will get dedicated time – to inspire others, to raise challenges, and to take advice and support from other participants. Among the reworkshops are sessions on:

Rework energy: exploring steps to scale-up solar energy solutions, implementation of efficient stoves and training programs to support sustainable energy entrepreneurs

Rework water: focusing on increasing access large-scale to safe drinking water, sanitation solutions and efficient irrigation methods

Rework land: taking forward sustainable agriculture methods, deforestation initiatives and sustainable tourism models

Rework cities: developing urban green jobs, sustainable urban infrastructure and housing solutions for the poor

Rework people: searching ways to expand innovative skills training, use of culture and media to promote entrepreneurship and new approaches to engaged marginalized youth

Location: Various

18.30 Dinner
- 20.30

Location: Tent

20.30
- 21.30

Stories of inspiration

After a full day of inputs and reworking, late-evening parallel gatherings will present stories of hope and inspiration, in words and music.

Location: Various

21.30
- 00.00

Rework Bar

Location: Tent

Friday, 4 June 2010:

Towards a billion new jobs: visions of large-scale change,
and the projects and rethinking that can get us there

08.30 Stories of inspiration and morning conversations

Five parallel conversations presenting stories of hope and inspiration, and a "World Café" session of sharing and harvesting.

Location: Arena

10.00 Plenary session IV – Creating a billion new jobs: From local entrepreneurs to global change

Music by cellist Svante Henryson (Sweden) and artists from the No More Lullabies project

Introduction

Maud Olofsson (Deputy Prime Minister, Sweden)

VISION 1:

Mass-mobilizing the poor for entrepreneurship and jobs

Percy Barnevik (Chairman, Hand in Hand, Sweden)

Followed by a conversation with Elaben Bhatt (Founder of SEWA, India), Ulrich Frei (FUNDES International, Costa Rica) and Hekani Jakhlu (YES Leader, Nagaland and Director, YouthNet, India).

VISION 2:

"Green teams" bringing clean energy to rural Africa

Emmanuel Dennis Ngongo (Country Coordinator, YES, Kenya).

Followed by a conversation with Rustom Masalawala (Director, Business Development, Millennium Promise, USA) and Julius Mutio (Business Development Services Coordinator, ILO, Geneva).

Reflections:

Aart de Geus (Deputy Secretary General, OECD, Paris) and Maria Wetterstrand (Member of Parliament and spokesperson, Green Party, Sweden)

Location: Arena

12.00 Lunch
- 14.00

14.00 Parallel Reworkshop Sessions (II) and Rethinking Sessions

In addition to the Reworkshops (continued from Thursday afternoon), other conversations (with a focus on Rethinking) will take place, and space will also be available for improvised gatherings, coaching sessions, brainstorming on new ideas and open presentations.

The Reworkshops will be taking forward sustainable initiatives in the areas of energy, water, land, cities and people. Reworking finance solutions are introduced.

Rethinking sessions will cover issues such as how to create equal access to economic opportunities, and how to work within the planetary boundaries

Location: Various

16.00 Break

16.30 Parallel Reworkshop Sessions (III) and Rethinking Sessions

The Reworkshops continue, taking forward sustainable initiatives in the areas of energy, water, land, cities, people and finance.

The Rethinking sessions cover issues such as the role of social entrepreneurship and the role of enabling technologies to rework the world.

Location: Various

18.30 Dinner
- 20.30

Location: Tent

20.30
- 21.30

Stories of inspiration

After a full day of inputs and reworking, five late-evening parallel gatherings will present stories of hope and inspiration, in words and music.

Location: Arena

21.30
- 00.00

Rework Bar

Location: Tent

Saturday, 5 June 20 10

Towards a billion new jobs: the need for a new financial and policy environment

08.30 Stories of inspiration and morning conversations in the arena

Five parallel conversations presenting stories of hope and inspiration, and a "World Café" session of sharing and harvesting.

Location: Arena

10.00 Parallel Reworkshop Sessions (IV) and Rethinking Sessions (III)

In addition to the Reworkshops (continued from Thursday and Friday afternoon), other conversations (with a focus on Rethinking) take place, and space is also available for improvised gatherings, coaching sessions, brainstorming on new ideas and open presentations.

The Reworkshops focus on Rework mechanisms, to take the concrete steps forward.

The Rethinking sessions cover issues such as the Swedish employment debate and the role of business in society

Location: Various

12.00 Lunch

- 14.00

Location: Tent

14.00 Plenary session V: The Rework the World Investment Panel

Music by artists from the No More Lullabies project

Introductory remarks:

Lars H. Thunell (Executive Vice President and CEO, International Finance Corporation (World Bank), Washington D.C.)

Moderator:

- Carl Mossfeldt (Tällberg Foundation, Sweden)

Panelists:

- Lennart Grebelius (Chairman, Satila Holding, Sweden)
- Shonaid Jemmet-Page (COO, CDC, UK)
- Oliver Karius (LGT Venture Philanthropy, LGT Bank, Switzerland)
- Niklas Kjellström-Matseke (CEO, Svenska Postkodlotteriet, Sweden)
- Sarah McPhee (CEO, SPP, Sweden)
- Anders Nordström (Director General, SIDA, Sweden)
- Lars G. Nordström (CEO, Posten, Sweden, Former Group CEO, Nordea, Sweden)
- Peter Norman (CEO, 7th State Pension Fund, Sweden)
- Atiur Rahman (Governor of Bangladesh Bank, Bangladesh)
- William H. Saito (Director, National Institute of Advanced Industrial Science and Technology, Japan)
- Audrey Selian (Director, Artha Initiative, UK)

Location: Arena

16.00 Break

16.30 Plenary session VI – What have we achieved

Music by artists from the No More Lullabies project

Re-thinking policy – outcomes from the Policy Dialogue

Presented by Anders Wijkman (Tällberg Foundation, Sweden), with contributions from Angela Cropper (UN Assistant Secretary-General and Deputy Executive Director, UNEP, Nairobi), Olav Kjørven (Assistant Administrator and Policy Director, UNDP, New York), Arun Maira (Member, Planning Commission, India) and other participants from the Policy Dialogue on “Reworking the policy landscape for sustainable job creation”.

Outcomes of the summit

Some of the most powerful new ideas from the Summit will be showcased and discussed with inputs from the floor.

Comments and reflections from:

Carin Jämtin (Oppositional Vice Mayor of Stockholm, Sweden)
Sven-Otto Littorin (Minister for Employment, Sweden)

Towards Alexandria 2012

Closing ceremony with Muhammad Abushaqra (National Coordinator, YES, Egypt), Ulla-Britt Fräjdin Hellqvist (Board member, Tällberg Foundation, Sweden), Bo Ekman (Founder and Chair, Tällberg Foundation, Sweden), Ismail Serageldin (Director, Bibliotheca Alexandrina), Seher Yilmaz (President, LSU National Council of Youth Organizations, Sweden), and Poonam Ahluwalia (President, Youth Entrepreneurship and Sustainability, USA).

Musical conclusion with Magnus Lindgren and friends

Location: Arena

18.30 Dinner

- 21.00

Location: Tent

21.00 After Rework – A festive finale

- 01.00

Location: Tent